REFERENCE(S)

EGPW 8872, 1 June 1959

1. In accordance with Referenced instructions, a meeting was held with AECANOE 3 on 2 July 1959 in Frankfurt. As expected, he was most cooperative. (The undersigned has had occasional contact with Subject during the past several years.) His organization and its capabilities were discussed with Subject and it appeared likely that AECANOE 3 could probably carry out the tasks suggested by Headquarters. He was therefore briefed in some detail on the assignments contained in paragraph 3 of Reference. It was emphasized to Subject that a "shotgun" type of approach was not desirable because of the security considerations. Subject was instructed to choose an individual in as many of his organization's chapters as possible and then submit the name and personal history data to us for screening. These individuals are to be chosen on a very selective basis and will serve as confidential personal representatives of AECANOE 3. The rank and file members are not to be informed of this arrangement, but may be utilized as unwitting spotters of Soviet visitors.

2. AECANOE 3 stated he has several reliable people in mind who he felt would be willing to cooperate. He was instructed to make tentative overtures to them and if he still felt they were suitable, to submit their names and personal history data. We plan to arrange a meeting in the near future and will then inform you what progress Subject has made.

3. Subject was advanced $1,000. to cover expenses incurred in the course of contact operations. He was told that this money was to be used only for actual expenses and to include receipts in his accountings wherever possible. The payment of bonuses or compensation for work performed was left open, Subject having stated that his contacts would likely be willing to donate their services.

4. It is requested that fifty copies of the Latvian language "The New Class," by Djilas, be forwarded to FOB. They will be distributed to AECANOE 3 and to any other of his sub-agents who are considered suitable.
